

Admissions Officer

Job Description

Reporting to: Director, Admissions

Updated: August 2021

The Admissions Officer works with the Director, Admissions to identify, recruit and admit qualified candidates to our three academic programs: Scholars, Young Scholars and College Scholars. The process includes travel throughout New Jersey and surrounding states to conduct information sessions and school visits for interested students, parents, and community organizations; establish relationships with schools and key community members; and supporting both the SEEDS staff and the applicant families during the admissions process.

This is a great fit for someone interested in a mix of sales and data management. You will be the face of SEEDS for many students hearing about our program for the first time. Enthusiasm and attention to detail are keys to success for this role. This is a full-time, non-exempt role.

About SEEDS

SEEDS – Access Changes Everything (founded in 1992 as NJ SEEDS) is a privately funded, nonprofit organization. We change the lives of motivated, high-achieving students from low-income families by transforming their educational opportunities. With 160 students per year and more than 2,900 graduates, every member of SEEDS' 25-person main office staff and 75-person site staff understands how their work contributes to students' success every day.

Responsibilities

Recruitment:

Carry the story of SEEDS enthusiastically and persuasively throughout all tasks. This person develops their own expertise of the program, and is able to be a public-facing member of the team.

- School Visits and Information Sessions – visit schools, including but not limited to present to students and parents and meet with guidance counselors, teachers, or principals,
- Relationships building – increase awareness of SEEDS' academic programs within targeted areas and establishing relationships with key stakeholders
- Communication – Develop and execute all communication strategies and protocol for the inquiry and admissions process; be first point of contact for prospective families, school staff, and other partners; track and follow up with interested applicants, schools, community organizations and other stakeholders

- Database –process all electronic submissions (inquiries, nominations and applications), admissions paperwork, and will be responsible for maintaining data integrity in the database.
- Event Management – Managing the logistics of interview days, testing days and other admissions events, and coordinate these efforts with other SEEDS departments.

Admissions:

- Pre-Enrollment Processing –process incoming applications and supporting documents; ensure dissemination of decision letters and emails occurs in a timely manner.
- Candidate Review –review, interview, and tests candidates for admissions
- Enrollment – Assist in all matters of enrollment

Like everyone at SEEDS, this role will perform other organization-wide duties and responsibilities, as needed.
